

Students First!

Putting Students at the Centre of Assessment

Our interactive session will provide you with active learning tools to use in your classroom. Please visit our wiki to access all of the tools we share with you today.

Our assessment strategies are influenced by the work of the following authors:

- Howard Gardner – Multiple Intelligences
- Anne Davies – Making Classroom Assessment Work
- Rick Stiggins – Assessment For Learning

Contact your presenters if you have questions, tools to share with us, or links to useful websites.
